

Vandalia Community Preservation Association To Feature Silent Auction For 20th Anniversary

Spencer Evening World Staff Report, October 22, 2015

On Sunday, October 25, at 4:00 p.m., the VCPA will host a Soup Supper and Gospel Concert featuring Lloyd Wood and friends. Tickets for the event will be $10, and will include chili and/or winter vegetable soup, drink, and homemade pie; as well as admission to the Lloyd Wood concert. All proceeds will benefit the VCPA for the preservation of the Chapel and School House.

All auction items will remain on display at the Owen County Heritage and Culture Center (old Carnegie library) in Spencer through Friday, October 23rd. Those interested in bidding are encouraged to place their bids during the hours of 8 a.m. to noon. Bids will also be accepted at the event, and winners will be announced that evening. All proceeds from the silent auction will also benefit the VCPA. A complete listing of auction items can also be found on our VCPA website and Facebook page.

T-shirts will also be on sale for $12 at the event and feature a rendering of the Vandalia Chapel. Various sizes will be available and proceeds benefit the VCPA.

For updates on the event, visit the VCPA's website at www.vandaliacpa.org/#savethedate. Also, the group is encouraging folks to visit their Facebook page at www.facebook.com/vandaliacpa for updates on the event, as well as to share their personal memories of time spent at the Chapel and/or School House.

Founded in 1995, the VCPA exists to preserve, restore, and maintain the Vandalia Chapel and School House located in Vandalia, Indiana.
